Thank You Mrs Shrimpton

Tomorrow sees the last day of a true stalwart of Ilchester Primary School: Mrs Shrimpton. As well as working here as a Lunchtime Supervisor and a Cleaner Mrs Shrimpton has, as you will all know, been our Lollipop Lady for over fifteen years. Come rain or shine, snow or hail, Mrs Shrimpton has always been there for our children, looking after them as they cross the road before and after school. On behalf of the whole school community I would like to thank Mrs Shrimpton for her dedication to this role and to wish her all the very best in her retirement.

NO CROSSING PATROL

As yet I have received no applications to replace Mrs Shrimpton; therefore there will be no Crossing Patrol in place after the Easter break. I cannot stress enough the importance of parents supervising both their school age and pre-school children on their way to and from school-there will be no Mrs Shrimpton waiting at the crossing.

A Wonderful Performance

Congratulations to the children from Years 3 and 4 on a fabulous performance of Sleeping Beauty. Your energy, enthusiasm and sheer enjoyment in putting on the production was a joy to see. Well done to all the children and adults involved. What a fantastic show!

Stars in Their Eyes

Children from across the Infant Department have been captured on camera today as a film crew have joined us in school. The creature trail that the children set up around the village in the autumn is being featured in a Somerset Arts film. We'll post the link once the final cut has been completed.

Farewell and Thankyou

As well as saying goodbye to Mrs Shrimpton, tomorrow sees the last day for both Mrs Romans and Mrs Goodwin. Good luck to both of them as they take their next steps!

And Finally

Thanks to staff, parents and children for another great term at school. Don't forget that there is no school for children on Friday and we look forward to seeing you all again on Tuesday 18th April. Children are welcome to stay in their winter uniform but do check guidelines on the website for summer uniform before purchasing any new items.
