

Prime Area: Personal, Social and Emotional development (PSED)

Queuing – taking turns
Because it's home!
Difference between cultures – look at how children are cared for and over time.
Talk about the use of the cane years ago.

To Do: Create a themed role play area, move provision outside, put up alphabets and numbers outside,

Resources for Learning: Castle books, Sport related books

Specific Area: Expressive Arts and Design (EAD)

National Anthem, Jerusalem song,
Traditional English TV programs –
Wombles, Clangers, Punch and Judy,
Seaside (although not too much as will cover in the summer)
British artists – Banksy
Felt Tea Cosy
Build famous places with junk modelling
Make a new stage backdrop – perhaps London

Prime Area: Communication and Language (CL)

Pronunciation – Queens English – etiquette
Different languages across the world – how they compare.
Recite poetry, Retell events, verbal recounts.

Spring Term: What makes England special?

Hook: Football Crowd Welcome to School

Trips & Visitors: British Café Visit,
Footballer, Castle ruins, Gardens

Finale: British Tea Party

Specific Area: Understanding the World (UW)

British weather and seasons
How does England compare to other countries?
British Food
Bank holidays
St Georges Day
Traditional English Wedding and Christening
Clothes over the years
Postmen, black cab, red buses
NHS
Big Ben, Houses of Parliament, Places
Buckingham Palace and Royalty
Castles, Medieval Heritage
Schools
Angel of the North

Prime Area: Physical Development (PD)

Traditional British Sports: Football, Tennis, Cricket, Croquet, Rugby, Sailing, Horse Riding and Racing. Worldwide events that take place or have taken place in England
Large Apparatus and Ball Skills

Specific Area: Literacy (L)

Books: George and the Dragon, The Queen's Knickers, Non-Fiction texts about Castles or Royalty, Sport books, English Author (Julia Donaldson) Books. Michael Rosen Books for Poetry,

Genres:

Spring First Half:

Narrative (3 weeks)

Non-Fiction (2 weeks)

Spring Second Half:

Narrative (3 weeks)

Poetry (1 week)

Non-Fiction (1 week)

Handwriting

Individual letter formation

Specific Area: Mathematics (M)

Money – British sterling

Weight – difference between other countries

White Rose Themes of Work

Pattern – relate to jewellery making when looking at the Royal Family

3D shape buildings

Height charts – who is the tallest, smallest etc.

Mathematical vocabulary – halving